

You are cordially invited to attend the Third Annual Ukrainian Studies Lecture at UVic featuring the distinguished Ukrainian Canadian writer Myrna Kostash. She will introduce her new book, Prodigal Daughter: A Journey to Byzantium. This work of creative nonfiction explores the connections among Slavs, Byzantium, and Eastern Church in the form of a travelogue, memoir, reportage, and reflection. Copies of the book will be available for purchase at the event (credit cards accepted).

Friday, 21 January, 2:30-4:20 pm in Clearihue Bldg Rm C112

The annual Ukrainian Studies lecture series at UVic is supported by the Ukrainian Studies Endowment, which was established by the Ukrainian Studies Society.
